

WEB230: JavaScript 1

Module 6: Handling Events Summary

Summary

- event handlers make it possible to detect and react to external events
- each event has a type - eg. 'click'
- events propagate to their parent elements
 - `event.stopPropagation()`
- some elements have default actions
 - `event.preventDefault()`
- only one piece of JavaScript can run at once

Reference

- MDN Events \(https://developer.mozilla.org/en-US/docs/Web/Events\)